Ermenegildo Zegna built its time-tested reputation on its fine tailoring using the best materials in the world.

Luxury, tailor-made for you, at The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands

There is something to be said about the pleasure of wearing an outfit that has been tailored just for you. Not only will a well-executed piece fit you like a glove – with the associated comfort and aesthetic outlook – customised outfits also speak volumes of your unique sartorial inclinations and personality.

Discerning gentlemen who go bespoke have never looked back. And to elevate you to the pinnacle of style and comfort, here are three luxury labels at The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands offering made-to-measure services.

Ermenegildo Zegna

Luxury label Ermenegildo Zegna is widely regarded as a leader in bespoke menswear, a reputation built on its tradition of offering sharply tailored outfits using only the most luxurious fabrics.

But not content to rest on its laurels, Zegna is constantly looking for ways to push the boundaries. And this season, it launched a line of made-to-measure jeans – the first luxury menswear label in the world to do so – to cater to gentlemen who enjoy outfits that are a meeting of luxury, comfort and style. The jeans, which are cut specifically to ensure a perfect fit for your body shape, come in a choice of two styles and six luxurious Japanese denims, and you can further infuse them with your personality by customising details such as the zipper and buttons.

Zegna also offers a bespoke Casual Luxury line with made-to-measure jackets and shirts from denim and leather to knitwear.

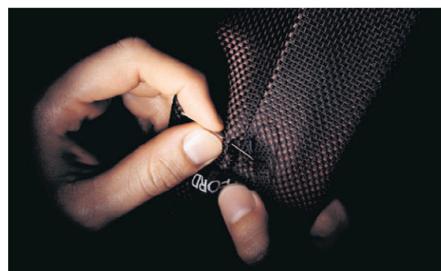

And for the gentleman who is experiencing Zegna's bespoke tailoring services for the first time, make an in-store appointment at its boutique at The Shoppes and the label's Italian stylist and VIP personnel will host a private shopping experience for you and a guest.

TOM FORD

How exclusive is a bespoke suit by TOM FORD? So exclusive that even the fabric is made specially and only for the label by the finest mills in Europe. Its wool is hand-picked and spun into yarn on 18th-century English machines, while its wool-silk and wool-cashmere blends are woven in northern Italy, where the local waters give the textiles a luminous finish.

Undoubtedly the linchpin of your personalised wardrobe, your suit is then assembled in one of three artisanal workshops located in Biella, Novara or Padova in Italy by master tailors or seamstresses. Following in the tradition of Italy's five-hundred-year legacy of fine tailoring, breast pockets are hand-sewn, buttonholes are double-stitched and trouser legs are turned up with two invisible buttons to allow the cuff to be unfastened for cleaning, imbuing your suit with the beauty and integrity that comes only with the application of the human hand.

And here is a fun fact: Actor Daniel Craig was suited up by TOM FORD for his role in the James Bond film, Spectre (2015). You, too, can possess a suit befitting of Mr. Bond and, along with it, his charisma.

Uomo Collezioni

Uomo Collezioni's Su Misura (made-to-measure) service allows the gentleman particular about sartorial finery to own a highly customised suit that is as refined as it will serve him well for years to come.

But more than just investing in a unique piece, personalising a suit at Uomo Collezioni also means you get to experience the pleasure of co-creating an item that will express your individual taste and style. Because, when it comes to customisation, no request is too big or too trivial – whether you want a pocket made specifically to hold your wallet or phone, buttonholes in a contrasting colour or personal monograms.

All Su Misura items embrace the fatto a mano (hand-made) tradition and are crafted in Italy by master artisans who spend up to 50 hours hand-sewing a suit, putting in 7,000 hand stitches for a jacket alone. And to add to the bespoke experience, customers get to browse a selection of more than 2,000 fabrics from Europe's finest mills.

When opting for customised threads, you have to, of course, exercise patience while your outfit is being put together, stitch by stitch. But like they say, good things come to those who wait.

The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands houses Singapore's largest collection of standalone luxury menswear boutiques.

Gentlemen in the spotlight, at The Shoppes

Have you, as a discerning shopper, ever groused about the underrepresentation of luxury menswear in centres of retail? If so, you will be pleased to find that at The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands, the spotlight is also on the gentlemen.

A veritable playground for men in the know, the luxury shopping destination houses Singapore's largest collection of standalone luxury menswear boutiques, some of them with their only boutiques in Singapore found at The Shoppes. For men whose calling card is their unique sense of dress, exclusive boutiques such as English luxury footwear label Church's, Italian fashion house Boggi Milano and Parisian label Sandro will rock the look for them.

To take the style game up a notch, luxury stalwarts such as Bottega Veneta, Burberry, Dior, Dolce&Gabbana, Fendi, Gucci, Prada and Versace also have dedicated sections or entire levels devoted to the sophisticated gentleman.

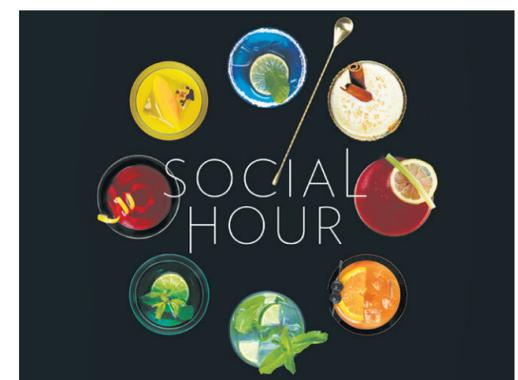

But if you are a man on a mission and need to acquire new threads as swiftly and efficiently as possible, The Shoppes stands ready to offer you its highly customised Personal Shopping Service. Fill out an appointment form online, with details such as your personal style and the occasion for which a fresh wardrobe is required, and each recommended boutique will handpick outfits and accessories for you, even before you step foot into the mall.

Drop by for your appointment and you will be chaperoned by a member of The Shoppes' Retail Concierge team to each boutique. All you have to do is try on a range of outfits and accessories laid out for you and select what catches your fancy, and there you go, mission accomplished!

Your reward? A spanking new ensemble to leave you looking – and feeling – sharp.

And for that all-important finishing touch, put a further shine on your luxury mission shopping experience with The Shoppes' complimentary shoe polishing service – the first and only mall in Singapore to offer such a service.

So never again will dapper gentlemen ever feel left out, because at The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands, they are, quite simply, the centre of attention.

Liquid assets

After a successful shopping mission, why not drinks to follow? Enjoy Social Hour on Tuesday evenings, with participating restaurants and bars offering 50% off their signature cocktails. Maybe for you, a Singapore Sling 1913 at Amaro Bar at Chef Mario Batali's Osteria Mozza? Made to the original 1913 recipe, this is a concoction of dry gin, cherry brandy, Benedictine DOM, lime and soda.

Or perhaps a Pineapple Swizzle cocktail at the bar at Gordon Ramsay's Bread Street Kitchen? Recreated by infusing Plantation Pineapple Rum with Queen Victoria Pineapples, and stirred with a swizzle, one will get to taste citrusy notes combined with coconut water and a herbal balance of Chartreuse.

But if you want to have your cake and eat it, head for Caffé B, which is offering 50% off three of its signature cocktails – Sake Cucumber, Apple Martini and White Sangria. Whatever your choice of tippie, just know that you will be ending your night in high spirits.

Complimentary Parking

The sense of satisfaction derived from a good meal should never be underestimated. And whether it is a power lunch with a work associate or a deal-brokering session over a sumptuous meal, you will have the luxury of choice with more than 80 dining options available. What's more, with new options such as Da Paolo Gastronomia and Dallas Café & Bar opening soon, the decision to drop by The Shoppes for your next gastronomical experience is a no-brainer.

And to top it all off, The Shoppes is offering Complimentary Parking from Mondays to Thursdays, 10am to 4pm, for those who spend $100 or more with up to two combined same-day receipts.

More incentive then, to drop by The Shoppes. Terms and conditions apply.
